Politics make it possible...

...women make it work

WELCOME!

Howard County Republican Women

HCRW is part of the Maryland Federation of Republican Women (MFRW) and its counterpart, the National Federation of Republican Women (NFRW). The HCRW's long-standing goals of education, training, participation in government, electing Republicans and encouraging Republican women to run for office has helped create an organization that is a strong voice in Howard County

- The MFRW sponsors training courses such as campaign management and candidate workshops that teach political skills...
- Encourages women to take on leadership roles, run for office and fill appointed seats...
- Provides services such as canvassing, polling and fundraising to Republican candidates at election time...
- Gives women the chance to meet office holders and women who hold the same political beliefs...
- Issue legislative newsletters which keeps members informed on issues and actions during the legislative session in Annapolis

The NFRW addresses similar goals, but on the national level. They also issue a quarterly magazine, available to HCRW members in good standing.

You are a very necessary part of the Republican effort to guarantee a sound government.

The MFRW is the reason there are more Republicans and more Republican women in office today.
